EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING

Each participant will draw three topics and choose one, 30 minutes before speaking. Being mindful that this is an international competition, topics will be all be based on major international stories covered in news magazines and newspapers during the six months prior to the tournament. Topics will be framed in question form.

The host school will provide an isolated facility for the competitors to use as a preparation room. Competitors may not bring in any research material or information resources, nor will the host school provide any. Their speeches must be based on their own knowledge of the subject.

During the speech, a competitor may refer only to notes prepared during the preparation period. These notes must be on a 3 x 5 index card, and both sides may be used. The card will be provided by the host school.

The speaker will have 3 to 6 minutes to speak. There will be a time penalty of 2 points for speeches which are up to 30 seconds under 3 minutes or up to 30 seconds over 6 minutes. There will be a time penalty of 10 points for speeches under 2 minutes 30 seconds or over 6 minutes and 30 seconds.

The extemporaneous topic will be read out aloud at the end of the presentation by the moderator.

Salutation is optional.
